

Career Opportunities in TAX

(Ref: 18/26)

Our rapidly expanding Tax department is seeking to employ highly motivated professionals of all levels and experience in Tax consulting and Tax compliance. Grant Thornton's boutique tax practice, distinct in terms of thought leadership is committed to "making a difference everyday". Ref: 18/26

Role

- Provide tax consulting services to individual and corporate clients
- Participate in tax due diligences
- Identify and propose solutions to complex issues
- Take ownership of engagement, demonstrate good project management skills
- Deliver excellent client service
- Work in a team of qualified, highly skilled professionals
- Identify opportunities for improvement and be resourceful in making them happen
- Anticipate change and encourage others to perform confidently in ambiguity

Requirements

- University degree in Finance/ Economics/Business Administration or Law
- Graduation from the yearly KOE Taxation Seminar («Κατάρτιση Στελεχών στο Φορολογικό Δίκαιο») from Athens University of Economics and Business, will be an asset
- Strong writing and presentation skills
- Committed to excellence; efficient and effective when it comes to deadlines
- Able to identify business opportunities and contribute to the practice through proactive interactions with Firm's and clients' senior management
- Excellent command of spoken and written English

Why should you apply to Grant Thornton?

Grant Thornton will provide you with a friendly, dynamic environment and help you develop the skills and competencies you need to achieve your potential. Your professional and personal success is our commitment.

How can you apply?

Please send your CV with the reference code 18/26 by e-mail at recruitment@gr.gt.com. All applications will be treated as strictly confidential.